□ 1517

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. OWENS. Mr. Speaker, today, I briefly stepped off the floor to discuss a pressing issue related to the Northern Border. Consequently, I was not able to return in time for a vote (roll No. 215) to suspend the rules and pass the Business Risk Mitigation and Price Stabilization Act of 2013, H.R. 634. Had I been present for this vote, I would have voted "yea."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. LAMBORN. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained due to a family medical emergency and was unable to vote on rollcall No. 212 and rollcall No. 213.

Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on rollcall No. 212 and "yea" on rollcall No. 213.

SWAP DATA REPOSITORY AND CLEARINGHOUSE INDEMNIFICATION CORRECTION ACT OF 2013

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 742) to amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commodity Exchange Act to repeal the indemnification requirements for regulatory authorities to obtain access to swap data required to be provided by swaps entities under such Acts, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Arkansas (Mr. CRAWFORD) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

This will be a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 420, nays 2, not voting 12, as follows:

SWAP JURISDICTION CERTAINTY ACT

Mr. HENSARLING. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to House Resolution 256, I call up the bill (H.R. 1256) to direct the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission to jointly adopt rules setting forth the application to cross-border swaps transactions of certain provisions relating to swaps that were enacted as
